International Women's Day Events Programme

Calendar of events

This is a programme of events across London during International Women's Day 2024 solace

March 2024

6th March 2024 | 5pm
Women Climate Defenders – Women at the frontline campaigning to protect Mother Earth. Find out more here

6th March 2024 | 7pm
Empower - A Concert for IWD. Partnering with Hennessey Brown Music, Vox Anima London brings a festival choir of upper voices to Cadogan Hall, under the baton of Erin Freeman to celebrate International Women's Day.Find out more here

7th March 2024 | 12:30pm
Alternative Classical, Leadenhall Market. An amplification of the voices of women past and present. Find out more here

7th March 2024 | 1pm
Celebrating Neurodivergent Women - A free webinar that will uplift the voices of neurodivergent women, celebrate their professional success and show what's possible for neurodivergent women in the workplace. Find out more here

7th March 2024 | 6:15pm
Keynote with Jasvinder Sanghera CBE. Hear the highly acclaimed international speaker Jasvinder Sanghera share her journey and reflections Find out more here

8th March 2024 | 6am
IWD Sunrise Swim at Beckenham Place Park. his swim is for anyone who wishes to join in. Once completed you will feel empowered and ready to achieve anything the day brings. Find out more here

8th March 2024 | 10am-3pm
Your Heart Matters at Battersea Park. There are stark disparities in women's access to treatment for Heart Valve Disease. This international Women's Day Valve for Life, Heart Valve Voice, Medtronic and St George's Hospital are partnering to offer members of the public free heart checks and raise awareness of Heart Valve Disease in Women. Find out more here

March 2024

8th March 2024 | 7pm
The Power of Her - IWD Female Artists Screening. Shoreditch Arts Club is showcasing a curated screening of video works by artists Chila Burman, Malgosia Stepnik, Rebecca Moss and Alexis Zelda Stevens. he screening is followed by a panel talk hosted by Ellery Weil, discussing the artists' practice with a view of the female condition, and how that informs their dialogue, and the selected works. Find out more here

9 March 2024 | 12:30pm
Million Women Rise – London. A march around London to campaign against male violence against women and girls. Find out more here

9 March 2024 | 9pm
Azadi Network - On Our Own Terms. On International Women's Day 2024, a British Parliamentary Report, led by Baroness Kennedy KC, unveils the parallels between the structural gendered injustice in Iran and Afghanistan. Find out more here

9th March 2024 | 10am-4pm
IWD Festival at The Bridge. In honour of this year's theme, #inspireinclusion, we'd love you to join us for our first-ever IWDFest - filled with workshops and classes in our cafe and studio to showcase our packed weekly programme at The Bridge and to spark important conversations about women's health and wellbeing in our community. Find out more here

16 March 2024 | 10:00-2pm
ADANNA Women's Support Group International Women's Group – Ilford. This is a fantastic opportunity to connect with amazing women, share stories and empower each other! Find out more here

20th March 2024 | 6pm-7.30pm
The Istanbul Convention - The Gold Standard for preventing and combating violence against women? In this seminar we will hear from an expert in the NGO sector working in the field of violence against women with expertise on domestic abuse, forced marriage, domestic homicide, so called 'honour killings and 'honour' based abuse (HBA), who has contributed to the monitoring process.
Find out more here