Supported accommodation to build stronger futures for women in London.

The Amari Project is an action learning project between Solace Women's Aid and Commonweal. Second stage flats are leased to Solace from Commonweal in order to provide quality housing and support to some of the most marginalised women in London.

Amari is available to women who:

- Have exited prostitution or trafficking
- Aged 18+
- Single or with a child under 2
- Have access to public funds
- Have been living successfully in 1st stage accommodation
- Committed to working towards settling into more permanent, long-term housing
- Have a proven willingness to engage with support, including employment, education or training programmes

Referral Process

- Must be from agencies
- Require consent from the woman who will undergo a face to face assessment
- Contact via email to request a referral form
